The complete disintegration, in the second half, of Birmingham City, coupled with superb generalship by Don Revie, backed by his fellow-forwards. Scottish international Bobby Johnstone, Hayes and Dyson, brought Manchester City a 3-1 win and the English Football Association Challenge Cup before a 100,000 crowd at the Wembley Stadium, London, on Saturday.

Mr. Klutznick declared that some of the Arab leaders would be less aggressive if the balance of military power between Israel and the Arabs be maintained. He said it is difficult to accept the U.S. Government's reluctance to send arms to Israel since a strong military defence has been accepted as a "keystone of American postwar policy" as a deterrent to aggression.

At that stage most experts felt that they were worthy favoruntes and would win. But in the second half Birmingham seemed to have no heart and Revie sent his men through as he wished. Half-way through the half, Dyson sent a great drive for a 2-1 lead and three minutes later from a goal kick from Trautman, Manchester's German goal-keeper, and an onward pass, Johnstone sent in a shot which had Merrick in the Birmingham goal completely helpiess. T.A. Hakoah, 2-1

League A champions, Tel Aviv Hakoah suffered their second defeat this season when they were baten 2-1 by Jerusalem Hapoe el in a friendly match at the YMCA stadium on Saturday. The game started at a fast and furious pace, but there was no score until the interval although Hakoah were clearly superior.

Both teams changed several players after the interval and Hapoel now had a clear advantage. Fruchtman scored in the 25th minute and shortly afterwards "Buba" Misrahi made it 2-0 from the penalty spot. Just before the final whistle the visitors scored their lone marker after a compound mistake by the entire Hapoel defance. (L.M.)

Congress Wants Jordan Plan Carried Out

Immigration of Young People, The 24th Zionist Congress yesterday morn adopted a resolution calling for "the greatest possefforts" to implement the scheme for directing which an immigrant may bring in under a general import licence; to case customs and taxes; to produce more economic information in the Diaspora in close co-operation with local Zionist institutions; to draft plans for an institution to undertake the liquidation of immigrants properly in the Diaspora; and to work for the establishment of sjoint Government-Agency body to stimulate such immigration.

In regard to absorption of immigration, resolutions in the main expressed appreciation of the work done by the Government and the Jewish Agency in the ship-to-village project, housing, employment and adult education and to the women's organizations for voluntary work in new immigrant settlements. In the event of "emergency" immigration, absorption methods must be adapted to the situation, the resolutions stated. Increased immigration was called for "at this critical juncture" from all Jews.

The Soviet bloc was called upon to recognize the right of Jews to join their brethren in the State of Israel, Paying tribute to the American Joint Distribution Committee, the Congress called upon all other Jewish philanthropte organizations to in-MAIPA, Sunday. — Israel consumed 57m. worth of motor spare parts last year, towards which local manufacturery contributed $2.5m. while imports for $4m. and stocks accounted for the rest, the Road Transport Controller, Mr. M. Bar, told the Garage Owners Association at their second national convention yesterday.

Imports. could be cut by proper maintenance of vehicles, especially by "preventive repairs," and in that respect the garage owners could yet contribute much to the economy, he said. Profits were important, but no less so was service to the client, he said. This year, $7m. worth of new vehicles would be imported, of which $5m. were allocated for buses and trucks, the balance for other vehicles, but only two per cent for passenger care, Mr. Bar reported.

would have to be done.

But one phase of the Congress did impress delegates to their heart's core. That was the great excursion organised by the Army on May Day to a new border settlement in the deep South. What delegates saw there of young people with their weapons ready to defend their new creation with their very lives, told more than occans of oratory what the Congress was about.

It is clear that future was about.

It is clear that future Congresses will have to be radically recast organizationally if they are to achieve maximal results. There will have to be more working papers before delegates; resolutions will have to come at the beginning of Congress and not be hastily considered at the end. The plenary in general will have to yield pride of place to the workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer out policies on the basis of workshop which will hammer and so produced the force to make the Jewish people capable of nation-building. These aspirations are today as strong if not stronger than before, and so the secret of revitalizing Zionism lies in better organization to produce greater creativity.

The Congress was summoned at this hour for the purpose of making an effective demonstration of world Jewry's solidarity with Israel at the moment of her gravest peril. The demonstration was made early in the political debate; the manifesto that was drawn up was carried with acclamation, but delegates still felt that it was drawn up was carried with acclamation, but delegates still felt that it was at home in the lobbies of their own countries' legislatures that the real political work on behalf of Israel work on the Israel work on the Israe
